KITCAT-DANFORD.

Marriage of Two Well-Known People in St. Andrew's.

The chancel of St. Andrew's Cathedral was beautifully decorated with choice flowers and evergreens last evening, by the pupils of St. Andrew's Priory, the occasion being the marriage of the Rev. Vincent H. Kitcat to Miss Lily M. Danford, eldest daughter of Lady Herron. The interesting ceremony which made them man and wife was witnessed by a large number of their friends, who nearly filled the Cathedral. Eight o'clock was the hour set for the ceremony, and at that time the bride appeared at the main entrance with Sir Robert Herron, who gave her away. The bridegroom had already taken his place at the chancel steps, attended by his best man, Mr. Clive Davies, and the groomsmen, Mr. Edward Stiles. The bridesmaids were the two sisters of the bride, the Misses Alice and Anna Danford. One was attired in yellow, trimmed with white and the other white, trimmed with yellow. The bride's costume was of white satin and veil of real lace. The service was entirely choral, being sung by the surpliced choir, under the direction of Wray Taylor, who presided at the organ. The wedding hymn, "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden," was rendered as the bridal party marched up the aisle. The Rev. Dean Osborne, assisted by Rev. Alex. Mackintosh, performed the ceremony in a very impressive manner. The wedding psalm was sung to a chant, and as the newly-married couple left the Cathedral, the Lohengrin "Bridal March" was played on the organ. Mr. and Mrs. Kitcat will spend their honeymoon at the Herbert place, Kailahi, and then take up their residence at Iolani College. Many handsome presents were received by the young couple. The officers of the Cathedral sent a set of silver spoons and other things, with an illuminated address, the pupils of St. Andrew's Priory a silver pitcher, and the Hawaiian congregation a very handsome calabash.

As the bridal party left the church the aisle was strewn with flowers by a number of little girls.

IN A WINE CITY.

Gus Murphy Writes of His Experiences.

Notwithstanding the announcement that prohibition would be enforced at the McKinley inaugural ball, Gus Murphy writes to a member of the Advertiser staff that "G. H. Mumm's Extra Dry flowed like water in Hamakua after a heavy rain. The managers evidently intended that the supper should be in every respect equal, from a wine standpoint, to the Cleveland supper.

"New York and Washington are lively, and after a siege in Honolulu, where the town sleeps from dark to dawn, the change is delightful, but my wife and I still long for a little of Hawaii's climate. Theatrical attractions are great, the continuous vaudeville winning favor every day. In a half dozen as many different burlesques of the famous Bradley-Martin ball have been given the same week. The particular point at one of these was the opening of 185 bottles of beer, which in a measure represented that number of cases of Mumm's Extra Dry, which were consumed at that function. I would liked to have had a part in the cast if the bottles had been Mumm's. This is not a local gag for Honolulu or Company D. It is straight business." Gus does not say when he will return, but as he is evidently doing society, he will probably remain for some time.

Hagey Social Club.

At the business meeting of the Club on Saturday evening the following were appointed a committee to confer with the directors of the Hagey Institute Company in regard to the future status of the Club: A. B. Scrimgeour, Horace Wright, Frank Metcalf, Prof. Edwards and Vice Prest. J. A. Mehrens.

The object the committee has in view is to gain the co-operation of the directors of the Institute in making the Club a permanent organization upon a substantial basis, in the cause of temperance, and more especially for the benefit of those who pass under the Hagey course of medical treatment.

Twelve new members were elected, thus placing the membership above fifty. It is anticipated that at the first semi-annual election next month there will be nearly 100 names on the roll.

"San Francisco, April 9, 1897.

"To the Editor:

"Referring to reports from Hawaii stating that C. A. Spreckels had discharged all the white men at Spreckelsville, we beg to state that this statement is obviously erroneous; all discharges made were for cause.

"By the present mail we have received requests from Mr. Spreckels to hire white men to work on our plantation, on the Island of Maui, to fill the vacancies caused by those dismissed.

Dangerous Cesspool.

Just to the rear of Thrum's bookstore is a cesspool with about five feet of fresh water in it. The surface of the water is about 10 feet from the ground above. Through carelessness on the part of those who are supposed to have charge of it, the cover of boards had been allowed to become gradually removed.

Early yesterday afternoon a 7-year-old Portuguese girl was walking through the back yard, and, not seeing the cesspool, fell in. Her cries attracted the attention of a clerk in one of the stores near by, who does not care to have his name mentioned. Without considering clothes or general appearance he jumped in and rescued the little girl from drowning. It was not long before the boards were firmly replaced over, and not around the cesspool.

Philadelphia Launch Time-Table.

People are continually asking the question: "What time do the Philadelphia's boats run?" In order to save the police officers at the boat landing, the Philadelphia launch time-table is published as follows:

Afternoon and evening: 1:00, 2:00, 3:00, 4:00, 5:30, 7:30, 9:00, 10:00 and 11:00.

It must be understood that the hours given above are when the boats leave the man-of-war.

Sterling Bicycle

"BUILT LIKE A WATCH"

AN INSTANCE that serves to show the strength and durability of the STERLING. A leading teacher of cycling, in Chicago, has used a gentleman's and a lady's Sterling the entire season of 1896, with a total cost of less than $2.50 for each machine for repairs. During this time he gave 700 lessons on the lady's wheel. Everybody who has learned to ride knows what this means. The hardest usage a wheel ever receives is when it is being used by a beginner. Knocked and banged around in this way, these dainty, graceful Sterlings have yet stood the hardest possible test a wheel could be put to, and the instructor is so satisfied with them that he intends to use the same wheels for this year's business.

This is but one example out of many showing the immense strength and wonderful wearing qualities of this built-like-a-watch machine.
